John Parda Feted At McRae Party

McRAE.— Mrs. Darda and brother-in-law Bill made a party for John Darda in the McRae old school, which was attended by all John's friends in the district and many of the out lying districts. This was John's first visit to our district since his marriage, his charming wife met a hearty welcome from all John's acquaintances in these district, made some of our bachelor addicts wonder at their delay in matters of this kind.

Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. John Toma have decided to prolong their honeymoon trip through many cities of the States and Canada by taking up work in Ontario for a time. John's brother-in-law Wm. Cherney is a permanent resident of Ontario and attended the wedding of his sister at McRae, after which the bride and groom joined them in an extended trip as mentioned above.

McRae citizens have dug deeply to bring out the hidden stocking and in spite of poor crops of hay and grain this year, have purchased more cars, tractors and trucks than any district of its size in Alberta. Ninety-eight per cent have cars, tractors or trucks. Three of the new Ford trucks have been tipped over. However no great damage was done except to the drivers pride. Let's hope it does not become a habit or an epidemic.

Mr. Edd Whelen reports a yield of 200 and some odd pounds of Alfalfa seed to the acre. Edd, a lumber man by trade, took up land on his return from the army under the Soldiers Reestablishment, started farming. Yield of this kind or not entirely luck, especially when rain is almost a forgotten thing in these parts.

The road construction crew of Field and Davis under foreman Fox have started work on the remaining like of the Lac la Biche-Spedden highway. Fox has just finished four miles of the Briereville Fork Lake road, which is a bus route. This four miles of district road, with a 22 foot top and good ditches is a fine piece of work and a credit to Mr. Fox, its foreman in view of the low cost per mile of $300.

Ground fires in the bush lands surrounding this district are likely to cause considerable damage, unless rains come to soak the ground, a nearly impossible wish.

Two Tractors Collide Near Spruce Valley

SPRUCE VALLEY. — On Sunday, Sept. 17, Mr. Stanley Korzenowski and Mr. Mike Matoga collided with their tractors on the road, a quarter of a mile north of Mr. Korzenowski's place. Accident occurred on account of the very foggy morning.

On Sunday Mr. Peter Homeniuk had a mishap of cutting his hand very badly while working by the combine on his farm. It doesn't pay to work on Sunday. Does it?

There was a show in the Spruce Valley hall on Thursday, Aug. 21. A fair enough crowd attended. Show was called the "Calgary Stampede."

Tallest cataract in the world is New Zealand's Sutherland Falls with a drop of 1,900 feet.

Now the Kids Have Their Day!

Papa's had his day and Mama's had hers. But now they've got a special day for the small fry. National Kid's Day was marked recently in Edmonton, and to commemorate the occasion, about 150 Indian children from the the St. Albert residential school were guests of the Kiwanis Club. They enjoyed a free show, candy and ice cream, and a tour of the city. In this picture, they're seen enjoying the cowboy movie. Photo by Mason.

Trial of Yvonne Langevin Slated For Current Supreme Court Session

LAC LA BICHE. — Trial of Yvonne Langevin, former school division secretary-treasurer, will open next week on 384 charges of uttering and one of arson, according to word received here.

Fall sitting of the Supreme Court opened in Edmonton Monday, and it is expected her trial will be the longest of 32 cases to be heard.

Miss Langevin has been charged with a $33,000 fraud, and the number of charges against her is believed to constitute a record in the history of Alberta law courts.

She was arrested early this year after RCMP discovered alleged irregularities in school division books.

Police said the irregularities occurred over a period of four years.

The single arson charge was laid following a fire in the school division offices last Feb. 23.

The former secretary-treasurer has been free on bail since she was arraigned in supreme court June 6 and was remanded to the fall assizes.

INSURANCE BUSINESS OPENED

LAC LA BICHE.— Eldred Weeres, formerly of Assiniboia, Sask., who joined the Imperial Bank at Moose Jaw and served in Lac La Biche, has entered into the insurance business here.

His office is located next to the post office, in the preises formerly occupied by Romaniuk's Radio.

Mr. Weeres is agent for Sovereign Life Assurance Co. and several fire and auto insurance organizations.

EDITORIAL:

Lac La Biche Needs Water, Sewers

Growing Lac la Biche will soon be called upon to vote on the issue of a water and sewerage system.

While some arguments have been advanced against it, the Herald feels that it is a progressive step that must be taken if Lac la Biche is ever to be the town that it could be.

In the first place, the project will be self-liquidating. Money borrowed can be paid back at per cent interest.

Some say that they won't vote for it because they won't, or don't want to get water. But a start must be made somewhere.

The town will grow, residents will be more inclined to stay here, and Lac la Biche will further have the opportunity to develop as a summer resort.

When Lac la Biche is called upon to give a two-thirds affirmative vote on the issue, ratepayers should turn out to the polls to do just that.

Truck Accident At Grassland

GRASSLAND. — For the third week in succession, a truck accident is reported in the Grassland district. In this case trucks belonging to Fred Johnson of Grassland and Frank Roskewich of Wandering River were in collision on the Boyle road. Damage to the vehicles was slight, and no injuries are reported.

Rain and wet snow, no doubt sent in answer to the fire-fighters prayers, have eased the fire situation in this district, and all fires are now under control.

The forestry showed a film at the AFU meeting on Thursday at the Grassland hall illustrating the latest fire-fighting methods in the bush.

The Olympic Club, formed in Montreal in 1842, was Canada's first club to sponsor outdoor athletics.

September Set Heat Records At Lac la Biche

LAC LA BICHE.— September, 1950 was the month that broke all established temperature records here, according to the Weather Station.

Average temperature for the month was 57 degrees, whereas the usual is about 51 degrees.

Rainfall has also been very light. There was only one-half inch of rain in Sept. compared to one and a half last year.

Miss Gwen Blair has been in charge of the station for the past two years. Miss B. Quast of Coronation and Miss Lucille Tatum of Lac la Biche are the assistants.

Carnival Planned At Prosperity

PROSPERITY. — A grand carnival in aid of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic church will be held in the Prosvita hall on Sunday, October 8.

A church program will commence at 10:00 a.m., with Holy Pontificial Mass officiated by His Excellency Bishop Neil Savaryn of Edmonton, featuring blessing of the newly erected rectory.

The afternoon and evening will be given over to a carnival program, highlighted by an election of a carnival queen.

The Fourth Freedom

Freedom of the press has always been a timely subject, and this being National Newspaper Week, we pause to comment briefly on the Fourth Freedom.

Thoughts on the subject raise the question: What is Freedom?

Freedom to a lot of different people means a lot of different things. To a condemned murderer, it would mean escape from prison and the penalty of the crime. To a child scarcely able to walk, it would mean only freedom to toddle in the path of danger.

But we are concerned here with freedom for full-grown men and women, law-abiding citizens, who have intelligence and the God-given right to use it in the conduct of their daily lives.

Freedom in Religion means the right of the individual to worship the God or gods he chooses in the way he believes to be right. Or it means the right not to worship at all.

Freedom from Fear means that no law-abiding citizen need fear for life or limb at the hands of others. It means freedom to live a normal life without fear of any Gestapo or concentration camp.

Freedom of speech is a guardian of these two freedoms, because it gives the individual freedom to comment on how he is being governed, to criticize present laws, to suggest improvements, but not to advocate actions contrary to ill-fitting laws until, by due parliamentary process, those laws have been changed.

Where one man, by speech, can reach scores of people, by means of the printed word he can reach tens of thousands. The sound of the soap-box orator's voice reaches only a few hundred feet into the crowd. When he has spoken, the sound is wafted away into the still air. In the cause of Freedom, Free Speech is priceless to our democracy, but how utterly helpless it would be without Freedom of the Press! When, by speech, one man can reach dozens, the daily and weekly press reach millions.

Freedom of the Press, like any other freedom, implies responsibility in order that liberty may be retained. Guarding of this Fourth Freedom rests, in the main, on the Press itself. It must be forever true to the responsibilities that this Freedom has created, and it must guard carefully any attempt to encroach on this all-important Fourth Freedom. To paraphrase a noble slogan, 'Eternal vigilance is the price of Freedom'.

As advocates of Freedom, we cherish dearly Freedom of the Press in this Canada of ours. Some subversive elements in our midst would like, most of all, to throttle the Press of Canada, including this newspaper, to usher in a ruthless dictatorship where the Four Freedoms would not exist.

We represent only a small segment of the Weekly Press, but we hereby re-dedicate ourselves to serve honorably and well our privilege to publish what we believe to be true about kings, governments, dictators and our readers, who, like ourselves, are common men and women who must be served in the unceasing fight for Freedom.

'Most Valuable Crop'

The Winnipeg Tribune, published for the urban residents of Manitoba, has printed a report stating that Western Canada's 1950 wheat crop is big and the most valuable since the war. Thre aren't many Alberta farmers who could agree with this line of reporting, for three important reasons.

The Alberta crop is not good except in a few districts, as to volume, and frost damage has not only reduced yields but has cut down in grades. We could never understand how the millers and bakers knew whether to use No. 1 Northern or No. 4 wheat in their bread. They certainly aren't likely to sell flour and bread at a lower price simply because they are getting their wheat cheaper this year due to lower grades. Bread with a cheaper grade of wheat isn't sold at a lower price.

The guaranteed price, too is reduced. Just when the prices of everything the farmer has to buy are at the highest point in history, the wheat board has seen fit to reduce the price of what the farmer sells.

We would like to see the Winnipeg Tribune re-write their editorial sections of the "most valuable 1950 Wheat Chop" and bring them into line with reality.

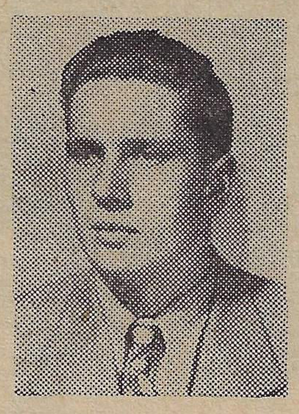

Trouble on the Road

By RAYMOND ARGYLE

The twin problem of dangerous driving and poor roads was never more evident in Alberta than today. Arising toll of traffic tragedies has made the highways of this province, in the minds of some, a menace to life and limb.

And the highways have caused others to curse at the pot-holes, mud lanes, and other 'back-country' roads that pass as highways.

Just the same, mind you, there are miles and miles of fine highways in Alberta. But what concerns us are the high rates for automobile license plates, the fact that anybody at all can get a driver's license, and the government's policy, in the main, of spending only automobile revenue on road construction.

Raymond Argyle

Now, to quote a few facts and figures, the government last year obtained over $13,000,000 from automobile revenue (license plates and fuel taxes), and spent about $15,000,000 on road work.

From capital account where the $55,000,000 from crown reserve oil lands go,' they spent less than $2,000,000.

This means that the government, despite the fact we badly need new roads, is depending almost entirely on automobile revenue for such work.

And it never fails to make this writer wonder why the roads to the oil districts (and that's where the government is making all its money), are in such an awful mess.

There's no reason why a flat fee of $10 per private passenger car (as in Ontario), would not create sufficient revenue for 'regulation and control' of passenger cars. We say this because that is all the money from license plate fees is supposed to be used for.

It should not be used to pay almost the total cost of road construction. Construction of highways is a capital expense of the provincial government, because highways are essential to modern living.

And capital funds should be used to build them.

The twin evil of this condition is that anybody can get a driver's license. In Edmonton, all you have to do is walk into the administration building, fill out a card, pay a small sum, and you've got your driver's license.

It doesn't matter what kind of a maniac you would be on the road!

There should definitely be driver's tests for all applicants. Furthermore, if a person is not up to par in his driving, there should be suitable instruction available for him.

Probably the best place to start, though, is with the high school students of today, who will comprise the majority of drivers on the roads tomorrow.

Driving classes should be included in the high school curriculum.

The Alberta Motor Association has launched a very worth-while campaign for lower license fees, and for tests of driving applicants.

It's just possible that the Alberta Teachers' Association could do a lot of good toward ending Alberta's highway menace if they began working for driving classes in the province's high schools.

Scriptural Meditations

"There is necessity for diligence in prayer; let nothing hinder you. Make every effort to keep open the communion between Jesus and your own soul. Seek every opportunity to go where prayer is wont to be made. Those who are really seeking communion with God, will be seen in the prayer meeting, faithful to do their duty, and earnest and anxious to reap all the benefits they can gain. They will improve every opportunity of placing themselves where they can receive the rays of light from heaven."

Smile Awhile

The Homey Touch

A very dejected man walked into a restaurant one morning and sat down at a table.

"I want two eggs fried very hard, two slices of toast burned black and a cup of weak, lukewarm coffee," he told the waitress.

"Are you sure that's just what you want?" she asked, amazed.

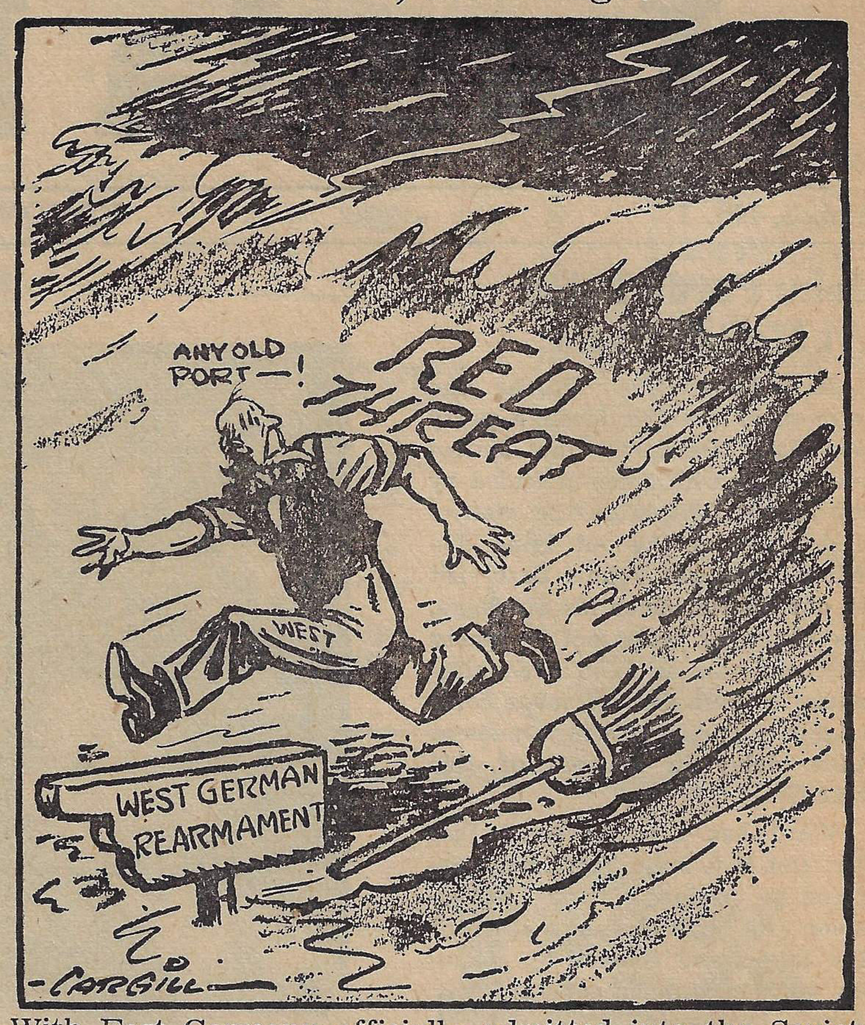

"To the letter."

The waitress explained to the chef and managed to get the man exactly what he had asked for.

"Anything else, sir?" she asked as she put the order on the table.

"Yes, now sit down and nag me. I'm homesick!"

The Farm and Ranch Review made a name for itself across Canada on account of the masterly editorials of the late Charles W. Peterson and it is pleasing to those who are tradition-conscious to note that the inscription "Founded in 1905 by Chas. W. Peterson" is still carried on their masthead. This paper now features a series of paragraphs entitled "I Saw" scattered through the pages.

The following is my contribution to your such series, if you had one!

"I Saw" . . .

Your Mr. T. W. Pue being offered a drink and refusing it with "Thank you very much, but I am driving a car." Hoodlum Cure

Dear Sir— I am as much concerned about correcting teen age hoodlums as anybody, but a recent Voicer suggestion that they just be shot sounds a bit drastic to me. There is a more moderate therapy which cured the incipent careers of two young ladies of 16 and 18 of whom I know. One learned the soothing effects of a stick on bare, fat legs and the other was persuaded to a better way of life with a leather strap carefully administered to the correct region of the anatomy. Between the shame and the sting, all gun-moll tendencies were obliterated.

COMMENT FROM THE PRESS

(From Canadaink)

Cause and Effect

Several authorities have agreed that there are certain direct connections between the eye, the brain, and the muscles and organs of the body. Sudden motion or brightness may cause the head to dodge involuntarily and the eyes to blink. Under the stimulus of bright lights and vivid hues, muscular tension will increase and with this will go a rise in blood pressure and pulse rate. On the other hand, dim lights and soft cool hues will release tension and cause blood pressure and pulse rate to drop. (Modern Lithography page 87 June, 1950).

The West End

The proofreader on a small middle western daily was a woman of great precision and extreme propriety.

One day a reporter succeeded in getting into type an item about "Willie Brown, the boy who was burned in the West end by a live wire."

On the following day the reporter found on his desk a frigid note, asking: "Which is the West end of a boy?"

It took only an instant to reply: "The end the son sets on, of course".

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY REPORTED GROWING AT SMOKY LAKE

SMOKY LAKE. — Smoky Lake Agricultural Society which was transferred from Warspite, now has 45 members.

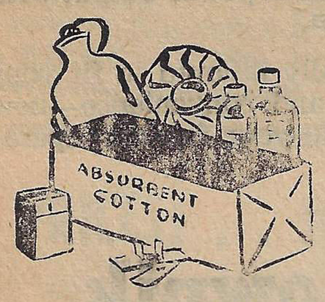

A fair was planned for this fall but because of poor crop conditions it was postponed for the following year.

There was a tiller competition held last July at Tom Ternoway's farm, which proved to be a great success. Some of the farmers who had intended discarding their tillers gained sufficient advice in setting and hitching their machines and have now decided to continue with this type of work.

First prize winners were Willie Dwernychuk of Warspite in Class A, and John T. Elaschuk of Smoky Lake in Class B.

Open tiller competition planned for next year will be held at Vilna or Smoky Lake.

This society contributed to the success of the Junior Calf Club. Other contributors were Searle Grain handling Quaker Feeds and the U.G.G. handling Money-Maker Feeds.

Brown Bomber Fails In Come-back Attempt

By AL CONNOR

The curtain rang down on an epic boxing era Wednesday night when Joe Louis, who in moments of glory looked like the Brown Bomber of old, proved once again that they just don't come back.

Joe Louis being defeated in the ring came is startling, almost unbelievable news. It was as if some great character had passed from the stages of history—and so it was.

Yet Louis was proud in his defeat. There was no humiliating, shameful submission to the fists of Ezzard Charles. In fact, it wasn't Charles that knocked the glory off Louis Wednesday night in Yankee Stadium—it was Time itself.

For 12 years, against all comers, Louis defended the world heavyweight boxing crown bravely and well. No other fighter ever held the tiara of fistiana that long. He defended his title 25 times. No other fighter ever considered placing his crown on the line that many times.

In two rounds of the epic battle Wednesday night, Louis seemed to flash back with his glory of old. Yet the fact that he couldn't bring Charles to his knees revealed, more than tenacity in Charles, the wearying effect that Time has on all.

For all of that, Charles too is a hardy and aggressive fighter. At no time during Wednesday night's contest did he back away from Louis for more than a moment. He went right in, trading punch for punch, from the time the fight started until the bell at the end of the 15th round.

With no knock-downs in the fight, it appeared very even up until the 11th round. Then Louis rounds went to Charles by a wide began to tire. The last four margin.

Alberta Technocrats May Disband Organization Here

By RAYMOND ARGYLE

Alberta is the youngest, most populous province of the plains, and throughout its short history it has watched a wider variety of political and social schemes parade along the passing scene than any other province.

When the Liberal party went into temporary hiatus during World War I, it was succeeded by the United Farmers, who went the way of all political hybrids in the early thirties amidst a scandal that rocked Alberta from border to border.

Then came Social Credit, which of course is still entrenched in power.

But probably the most colorful social or political organism of all, and one which certainly attracted the most attention, was the movement of Technocracy, which made its first appeal in the depth of the depression, and has been hanging on to a scattered handful of supporters ever since.

Up until a few weeks ago the Technocrats still maintained offices in Edmonton. The closing of them, by apparently voluntary acceptance of failure, was one of the most unnoticed, but important, social events hereabouts.

When Howard Scott, the father of Technocracy, first arrived in Edmonton, the capital city was a depression-stricken town of some 75,000 people. He stopped here briefly on the last leg of a continental speaking tour (for his headquarters were in New York) and Technocracy was attracting attention all over North America in its first bid for supremacy.

For 12 years before that, Scott had been working on various engineering projects throughout the States, meanwhile trying to figure out a solution to a problem this continent was soon to face—poverty in the midst of plenty.

He and a small handful of supporters came to the conclusion tht because modern scientific developments, along with the widespread use of machinery, was making it possible to produce an abundance of goods and services for all in North America, then it must be the economic system that was at fault if the great mass of people were not sharing in this new abundance.

Scott studied the system, found it to be one which was based on price, and came up with the apparently obvious solution that the price system must be junked before security and abundance could be secured. He reasoned that there could be no abundance under a price system, because the maintenance of price demands a similar maintenance of scarcity.

So he and his associates launched Technocracy—a new social system that could end all the evils of the price system if only the people would accept it.

The name means, literally, 'science rules,' in distinction to the theory of people ruling themselves, as set out in the principles of democracy.

In the depression days, it wasn't hard to talk the idea of a new system to the people of North America. Technocracy went places. It sprouted local clubs, called sections, in all principal cities and towns of the United States and Canada. It began publishing its own magazines, operating squads of Technocracy Cars, set up an elaborate research organization, and trained speakers, writers, and radio commentators.

Then came the war, which Technocracy condemned as a conflict launched only to prolong the life of the system. For this reason the organization was banned in Canada. But it continued its activities in the States, and after Pearl Harbor came out in favor of full and vigorous prosecution of the war effort.

As a matter of fact, before the war was over, the ban on Technocracy was rescinded in Canada, and the organization began advocating Total Conscription, of men, machines, material and money.

During the war years, Technocracy looked back on how the price system nearly crashed during the depression, and they fully expected it to do the same after the war, only in less time than before.

As such, the long-predicted collapse of the price system hasn't materialized. It probably won't, for the system seems to be able to develop new ways of life, and to grow with events.

Which leaves the Technocrats in Alberta back where they were before—waiting. But today there's less of them than at any time since Scott first appeared on a lecture platform in the Foothills province.

Everyone Works At Harvest Time

No amateur at farm harvests, this pretty Albertan is seen digging in with a pitchfork to help with the fall crops. Equip farms with this kind of hired help and the farm labor problem would be licked overnight!

Hunters in Alberta Have Plenty to Remember

When Albertans set out for their fall hunting trip there's plenty of things they should remember besides the dates of the opening and closing of the season.

Tips to hunters are set out in a big poster just issued by the Alberta government.

Among other things, the poster points out that it's unlawful to hunt big game unless you're clothed in a coat and cap of scarlet material, to kill big game animals under the age of a year or with horns less than four inches in length, to use dogs to hunt big game, to use aircraft or game birds in such hunting, and to remove evidence of sex from the carcass before you've got the animal home.

Farmers, incidentally, don't need a game license to hunt game birds on their own lands.

While Alberta hunters will generally enjoy an 'open season' this winter, there's to be no hunting of moose, antelope, swans, cranes, quail or hen pheasants.

September and October are the hunting months for mountain goat and sheep throughout the province, and caribou and deer in the Athabasca Forest Reserve.

General deer hunting season is in November and December.

You can shoot most bears all year round, but you can nab the beaver only between April 1 and May 15 and only by special permit or registered trap lines.

But you don't need a trapper's license to take coyote, porcupines, timber wolf or cougars. You do need one to trap most other fur-bearing animals.

Alberta's department of lands and forests, and its fish and game commission, under E. S. Huestis, has drawn up these regulations.

And as an added reminder, hunters when lost or in distress are asked to fire the official distress signal—three shots spaced five seconds apart. This signal should be answered by the firing of one shot.

May Make Another 'Road' Show

It has been quite a while since these two popular Paramount stars, Bing Crosby and Bob Hope, were seen together in one of their famous 'Road' shows. Yet reports from Hollywood are that another may be in the offing. Smiling Bing Crosby's latest was 'Riding High', and Bob Hope's 'The Great Lover,' is still making the rounds of the movie houses.

Record Attendance at Recent Thorhild Trade Board Meet

THORHILD. — Over 44 members attended the Board of Trade meeting held in the Thorhild school recently.

Mr. Peter Chada, M.L.A., Mr. Platz, Smoky Lake Municipal councillor, and Mr. Kinesh, a reeve of the municipality of Smoky Lake also attended the meeting.

The purpose of this meeting was to find some ways and means of obtaining assistance from the municipality of Smoky Lake and the provincial government with the help of the village of Thorhild for an all-weather road to either high—28 or 46 to give the people of Thorhild district an outlet.

Mr. Chaba, M.L.A. said that the government provides grants for the municipal roads, and that he will do all he can to provide a spurt to the highway for the Thorhild people.

Mr. Platz, a municipal councillor, said that he gravelled the road two miles south of Thorhild, last year, two roads one mile west to the Sturgeon municipality, and graded the road from Thorhild to Mapova. He also stated that he gravelled the road from Thorhild to Tudor and then to Abee. Mr. Kinesh, a reeve of the Smoky Lake municipality expressed that the taxes are not coming in this year as they did and he doubted whether the municipality will give assistance on this particular spurt. Mr. Platz pointed out that if the village of Thorhild will contribute a substantial amount of money for this outlet, the municipality may do likewise ,and the government will come with the assistance as well. However, it was pointed out that this road will be hard to maintain in shape and keep it open all the time in winter. Mr. Platz also indicated that last year Smoky Lake municipality paid over $20,000 for snow plowing the roads alone. The cost is tremendous on the taxpayer.

Mr. G. Gromenko, president of the Board of Trade, suggested that a resolution would be in order to this effect and later a committee was chosen from the floor to draft this resolution to the government. Mr. S. Stroich, Mr. W. Horn, and Mr. P. Shewchuk drafted the resolution. It was passed unaminously. The resolution was handed to Paul Franchuk, the secretary of the Board of Trade—who in turn will send it to Mr. P. Chaba, M.L.A., asking the government to build an all-weather road to either highway so that the bus may travel to the village of Thorhild at all times and furthermore that those people may have an outlet to the highway. Mr. Chaba M.L.A. hinted that a highway will be paved from Edmonton probably as far as Newbrook in the near future.

Mr. George Domanko thanked the visitors, Mr. Chaba M.L.A., Mr. Platz and Mr. Kinesh for attending the meeting.

Solution To This Week's Puzzle

The LIGHTER SIDE

Just a Suggestion

A lot of motorists could afford to be a little more superstitious—believe in signs, you know.

Latin

Latin is a language,
As hard as can be;
It killed the ancient Romans,
And now it's killing me.

Bring Your Own Flowers

George M—, son of Prof, and Mrs. E. S. M.—, is now connected permanently with the funeral home, where he will be pleased to see his friends.

Broke

"So you've just got back from your holiday. Feel any change?"

"Not a cent."

Never Thought of That

Little Peggy: "Mother was that policeman ever a little baby?"

Mother: "Yes, dear."

Peggy: "That's funny, I don't believe I ever saw a baby policeman."

Big Undertaking

"I suppose," said the recruit to his new chum, you used to do big things in civil life?"

"I did that," was the answer. "I had a job washing elephants at the zoo."

That's Something

Customer: "Have you anything for gray hair?"

Conscientious Druggist: "Nothing but the greatest respect, sir."

Right

"Now Johnny," said the teacher, "can you tell me what a hypocrite is?"

"Yes, Miss," replied Johnny: "It's a boy what comes to school with a smile on his face."

Wanted to Know

New Maid—"Why? Superstitious or something?"

Wasted Effort

The country dance floor was jammed to the four walls and after one number a gallant youth said to a young lady beside him, "Thanks so much for the dance?"

"Dance? Dance?" she queried aghast. "Why I was just pushing through the crowd to reach the refreshment stand."

LETTER TO LOUISA

Family No Aid to Girl Who Supports Mother

Dear Louisa:—My brothers and sisters are all married and my mother lives with me.

Ever since I finished high school I have been supporting myself and paying board to mother. Now that all the rest of the children are married that is not, of course, enough for her to get along on but none of the others seem to think they have any responsibility in the matter at all. They not only expect me to support mother but to take care of her when she is sick. Is there any reason in the world why a girl should assume the care and support of parents just because she is single and has no one else to help out with the expenses?

UPSET.

Answer:

It is amazing how selfish some people are and how often families will pick out one poor member to be the goat and put every burden on him or her, as the case may be.

There is certainly no earthly reason why you should shoulder the whole burden of your mother's support and care. If you were the only child I know that you would gladly share everything you have and sacrifice your personal desires to care for her but when you have sisters and brothers who demand that you do so while they deny themselves nothing, that is a different matter altogether.

If I were you, I would have a family meeting—without letting your mother know about it—and tell them that you refuse to be the family goat any longer. They could either contribute so much a month which would take care of her or it could be arranged for her to spend so much time with each of them during the year. They will probably accuse you of being a thankless, selfish daughter but don't let that bother you. You have to prepare for that rainy day, even if you haven't children to support.

So let them do without a new car or radio, occasionally, while you buy a few bonds instead of groceries. When Aunt Minnie gets old and cranky, she rarely ever finds the welcome door mat out if she is poor but she is much more attractive to the relatives if she has a nice little nest egg put away.

So assert yourself now for it may be later than you think.

LOUISA.

Marlene Deitrich Slated For New Movies

HOLLYWOOD.—(Special)—Enjoying a new popularity is sultry Marlene Dietrich, who is going to be plenty busy if she appears in all the films planned for her.

She's wanted for a re-make of 'Wonder Bar,' Al Jolson's old role being rewritten for a woman. Billy Wilder wants her for a picture to be made in Germany and Darryl Zanuck wants her for 'No Highway' with Robert Donat and Jeanne Crain, which will be made in England.

Then, too, she may appear in the new film 'All About Eve.'

Barry Sullivan, who has been working very hard recently, when offered the role of Loretta Young's husband in "Cause For Alarm," was told that he would play the entire role in bed. He accepted but declares, "I've never worked so hard in my life."

Howard Hughes read "Tasker Martin," a story by Diana Gains in galley form and then bought it for $30,000. Robert Mitchum is to have the role of a business tycoon in the early Twenties and Hughes would like to get Joan Fontaine for the feminine lead.

Taking advantage of Errol Flynn's current romance, Warners is rushing their latest film, into an October release, Flynn finished "Kim" for Metro a long time ago, but that picture won't be released before Christmas. By that time, his current romance may be over.

Bing Crosby has another name —"Sond - Hoo - Vi - Gund," or "Man of Many Songs", given to him by the western Shoshone Piute Indians tribes on the Owyhee reservation in Duyak Valley, 100 miles north of Elko. Crosby is said to be the first white man so honored.

New Zealand this autumn will be the first Commonwealth country to use wee Prince Charles' picture on a postage stamp.

Achievement Day Seen In Newbrook

NEWBROOK. — Girls Garden Club of Newbrook held their acievment day recently at Newbrook school.

The girls exhiited their display of home canning of fruit, vegetables and pickles, also fresh vegetables and flowers.

Ruth Whaley, District Home Economist of department of agriculture judged the exhibits and gave further instructions on how to carry on their work.

N. D. Stewart, field man of Alberta Wheat Pool also spoke to the girls, explaining reasons and advantages of working with these clubs sponsored by the Wheat Pool.

Mae Jolliffe was chosen best all around club girl for the garden club, which entitles her to a week's course at Vermilion School of Agriculture.

Chest X-Ray Clinic Is Slated For Waskatenau

WASKATENAU. — The mobile chest X-ray clinic will be in Waskatenau some time in October, on a date not yet announced.

District residents are urged to register early at the Waskatenau school, with Principal Robt. Elliott. The service is free to all, and residents should take advantage of it, as the X-ray can definitely show whether anyone has a sign of TB.

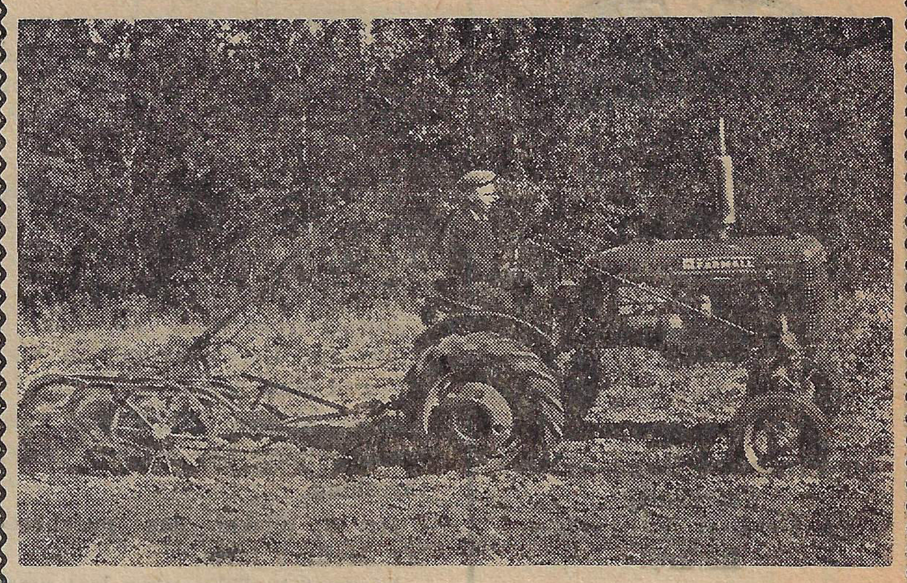

Chairman of the local committee is Geo. Repka. The clinic in Waskatenau is being sponsored by the Waskatenau Board of Trade.

Four years ago 940 in Waskatenau were examined for signs of TB. No active cases were uncovered. There were a few inactive cases and a few chest deformities requiring attention.

INCREASED WHEAT PAYMENT ASKED BY UNITED GRAIN GROWERS CHIEF

Initial payment by the Canadian Wheat Board on all grades of wheat should be increased by 15c per bushel and prompt settlement on past year's crops should be made by the wheat board with some participation by the government of Canada.

President J. E. Brownlee, K.C., of United Grain Growers Limited made a statement to that effect recently on behalf of the Company's Board of Directors in session here, as follows:

"Because of present financial needs of a great percentage of farmers it is important that the Wheat Board should pay out as soon as possible the tens of millions of dollars which it is now holding representing remaining proceeds from sale of wheat in the 5-year pool which was closed on July 31st and from the marketing of oats and barley during 1949-50.

To make immediate payment possible we urge that Wheat Board accounts in respect of such grain be closed at once by transferring to the Government at current market prices all old crop grain remaining on hand. The government should assume the limited risk of loss on subsequent sale, and no such loss should be transferred in Wheat Board accounts, to farmers delivering grain during the current crop year.

Additional payments such as suggested in respect of the current crop and past deliveries are urgently needed, and if made will go a long way in improving the financial position of farmers and the whole economy of the country."

Seed Oats May Be Short In 1951

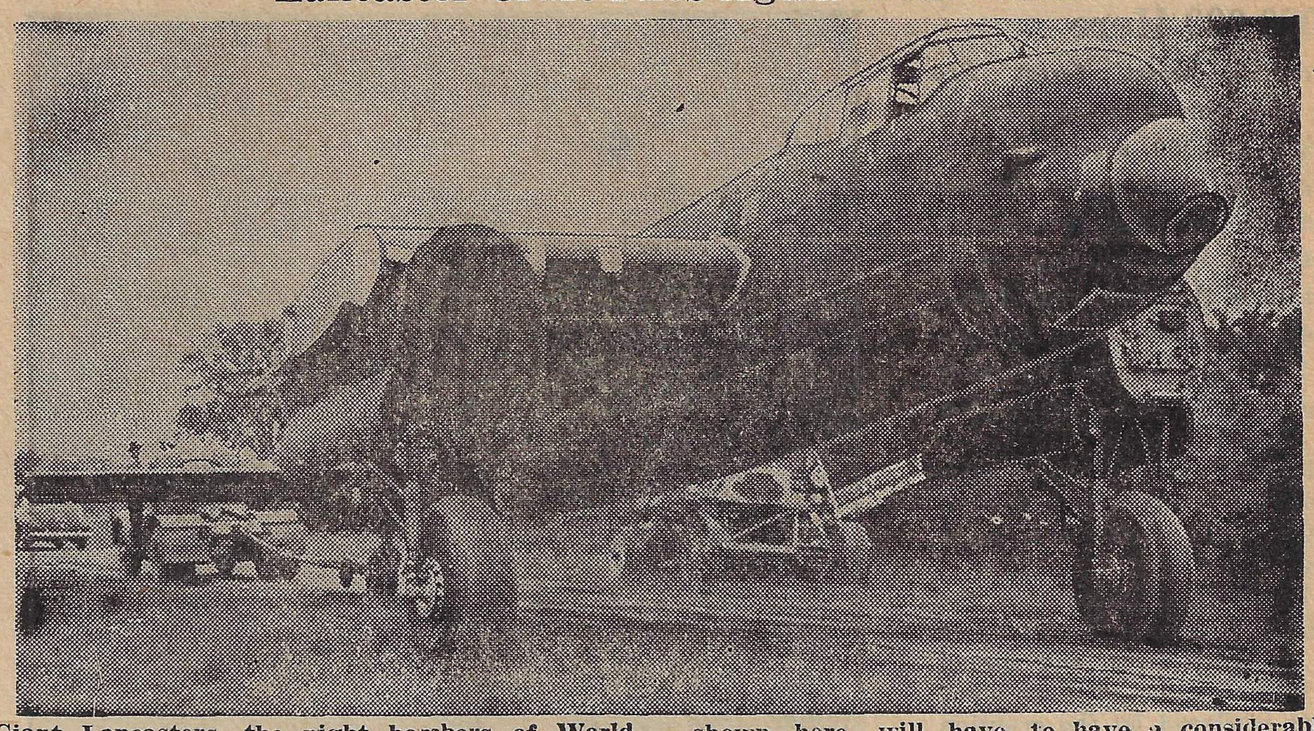

Seed oats may be in short supply for feeding of the 1951 crop.

A. M. Wilson, provincial field crops commissioner said recently after conferring with officials of Alberta seed cleaning plants that frost damage has cut the seed oats supply.

Wheat and barley supplies will likely be adequate, Mr. Wilson added.

Regional meetings are planned in various parts of the province to discuss distribution of available seed for spring crops.

Farmers Ask Government For Control of Prices

Representatives of Alberta and Saskatchewan farmers recently called on the federal government to control prices, wages and profits or grant the farmer higher prices for his products to assist him through current unsettled economic conditions.

These, among other requests, were made in a 5,000-word brief presented to Trade Minister Howe and Agriculture Minister Gardiner by C. J. Stimpfle of Edmonton, president of the Farmers Union of Alberta, and J. L. Phelps, president of the Saskatchewan Farmers Union.

Though farmers have been "patient," the two western farm leaders said they were not prepared to accept the situation without further protest.

"Many individual farmers and groups of farmers have been advocating a withholding policy," they said in the brief. "Others who are yet more disturbed, advocate a non-delivery strike.

The brief said farmers were dissatisfied because they did not feel they have been given increases in return comparable with those gained by other sections of the Canadian economy.

The groups led off with a request that price controls be reimposed on all goods, services, rents, wages and profits, including the prices of agricultural products, "on an equitable basis."

Failing this, they asked immediate increases in the initial prices on all grades of wheat.

Gabriel Pascal hopes to start making a new film, "Androcles and the Lion" in Rome in the middle of December.

Fire Loss Reported $1,000,000 Here

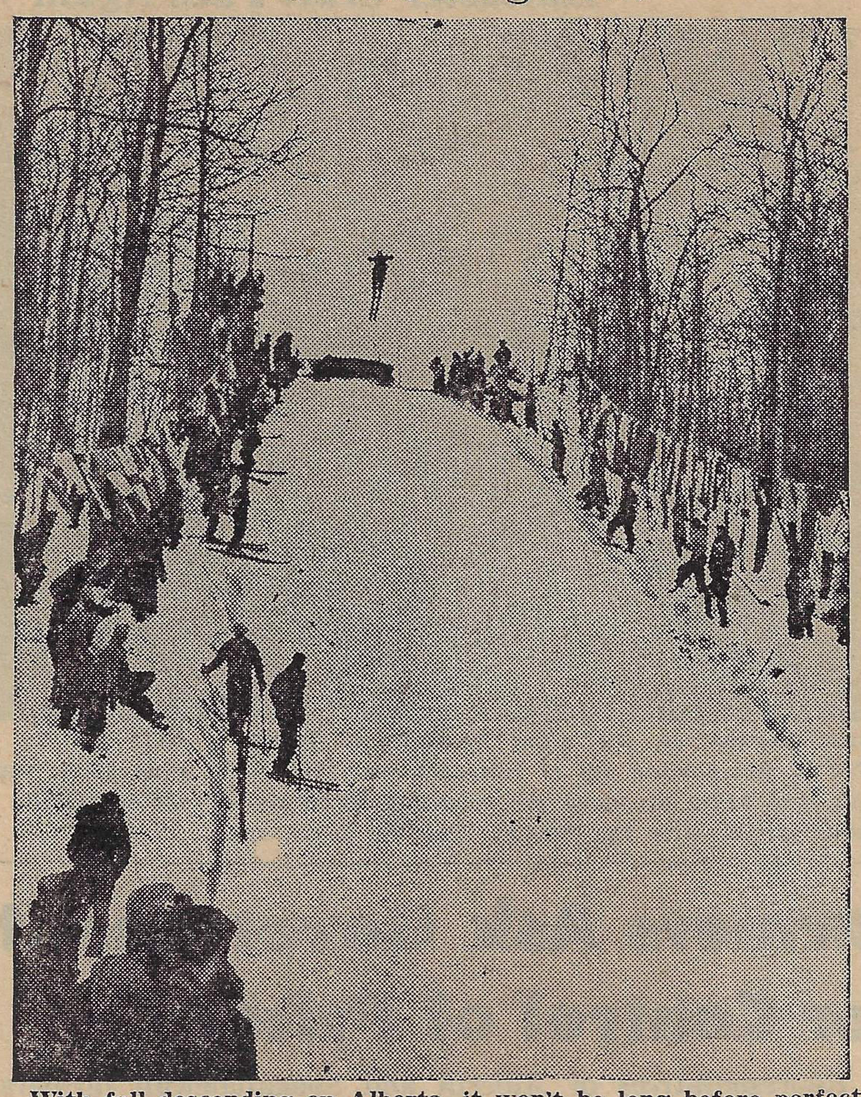

Alberta's worst forest fire seige in history cost the province about $1,000,000, according to J. L. Janssen, chief timber inspector of the provincial government.

Yet the contradicting thing about it is that last year forest fire damage amounted to $4,000,000. That was because thousands of marketable feet of timber were burned in 1949.

This didn't happen this year, but several towns were menaced, and the siege itself was more severe.

It has been reported that the blanket of smoke which arose from Alberta's fires, and spread over eastern cities, was as black as that produced by the eruption of Krakatoa in the Dutch East Indies in 1883.

It Won't Be Long Now!

With fall descending on Alberta, it won't be long before perfect skiing weather brings enthusiasts such as seen here back onto the ski slopes. Although Alberta is often considered 'prairie', there is many a fine ski hill throughout the province. World-famous skiing competitions are held each winter at Banff.

TEACHERS ATTEND THREE MORE CONVENTIONS IN ALBERTA TOWNS

Two Hills, Bonnyville and Lac la Biche were scenes of teacher conventions last week. These were the fifth, sixth and seventh conventions to be held in Alberta this fall.

Seventeen will be held in all, and two more will be held next February. These will be attended by the city teachers in Calgary and Edmonton.

Teachers of Two Hills and surrounding A.T.A. locals gathered at Two Hills Monday and Tuesday. Convention venue switched to Bonnyville on Tuesday and Wednesday and to Lac la Biche on Thursday and Friday.

Prominent educationists attended all three conventions. Guest speaker was Dr. Wilbur A. Yauch, principal of the Training School and Professor of Education at the University of Ohio. Other convention guests who participated in the programs were E. J. M. Church of the provincial department of education and W. E. Hodgson, a member of the staff of the University Faculty of Education. Eric C. Ansley, general secretary-treasurer of the Alberta Teachers' Association was present at all three conventions.

The conventions were sponsored by the Local A.T.A. Executives in each area and were attended by teacher delegates from the surrounding Locals and their sub-locals.

The province-wide convention schedule is so arranged that the prominent guest educationists will be able to cover most of them during their six-week stay in the province.

Many New Members In Motor Group

Membership in the Alberta Motor Association has passed the 50,000 mark, and in the last issue of the A.M.A.'s monthly newspaper, there appeared an honor roll of names of members who had got the largest number of new members for the group.

List was led off with Casey Berlin, of Taber, who got 91 new members for the A.M.A. Others with good standings were Steve Metrunec, Myrnam, 58; John Zadunayski, Waskatenau, 15; George S. Tomnuk, Thorhild, 12; John Camarta, Morinville, 8; The name of John Zadunayski appeared twice on the list, with the second figure of five new members.

Whiskey Prices Increase 5 Per Cent in Alberta

Prices of rye whiskey, dry gin and some imported rums increased in Alberta on Monday.

Price adjustments made by distillers to cover additional costs incidental to manufacture and distribution also account for the price rise.

Several other Canadian provinces increased liquor prices.

In Alberta, rye whisky which previously sold for $4.70 for a 25-ounce bottle now costs $4.90.

Bottles which previously cost $3.75 each increased to $4.10 and $3.55 bottles to $3.95.

"Prices raises by distillers are not uniform for all brands, which accounts for the difference in the amount of the increases." Mr. Mason, liquor board, said.

Price of dry gin advanced from five to 25 cents a bottle, but there will be no increase in the selling price of Scotch whisky and of some other imported lines.

Slight increases will be effective on some imported rums and on certain liquers.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Christian Living Demands Surrender to Christ

Personal commitment to Christ is a necessary part of every Christian's life. This means the surrender of oneself to Christ, and it involves several important steps.

Jesus himself in Matthew 16:24-25, outlines the steps very clearly. First, he says "If any man (or woman) would." In order to become a follower of Jesus Christ, one must make up his or her mind to do so. Any man or woman is free to do so, if he really wants to become a follower of his. Then, Jesus declares that that person who would be his follower must be willing to pay the cost, for it does cost something to be a Christian. The cost gets progressively higher, too, as one goes along.

Jesus says, "Let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me." What does he mean by declaring that his follower must "deny himself?" He means just what he says. One who would really be a follower of Jesus must put his own selfish desires away, must desist from demanding his own way all of the time, must be willing to say, "Not my will but thine be done!"

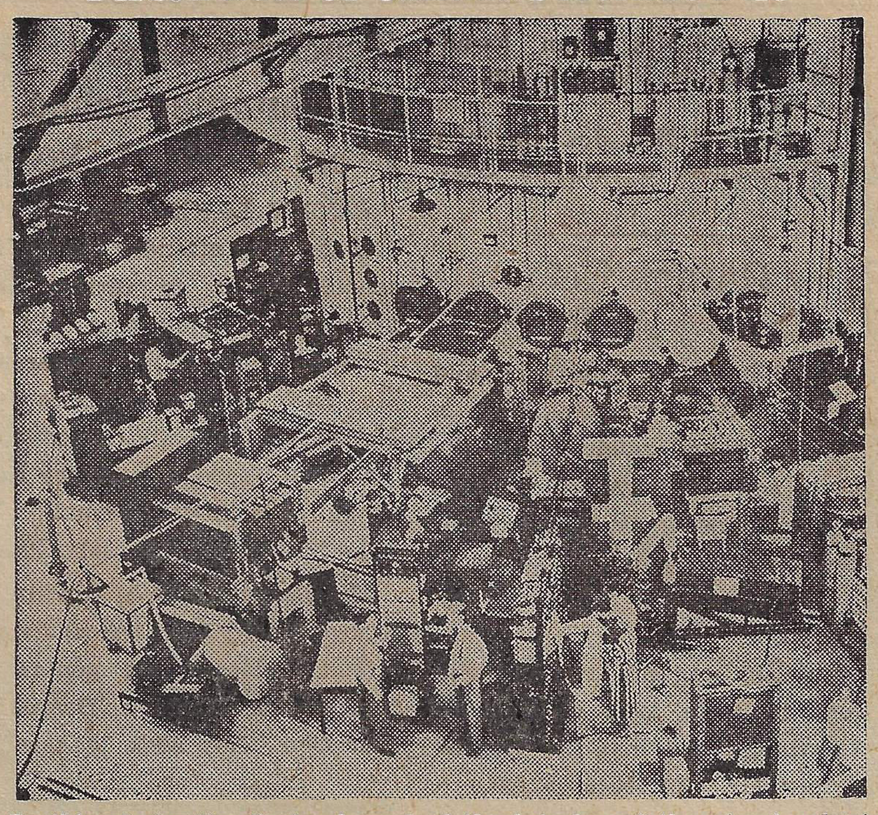

"And take up his cross." An old Scottish minister, William M. Clow, often used to say that Christians confuse a cross with a burden or a thorn. "A burden means the care and strain of daily life. It includes all that makes life go hard: wearisome daily tasks; duties that exhaust us with their monotony or difficulty; responsibilities that shake our nerves and keep us from sleep at night. A thorn tells of keenest anguish. The term describes some humbling affliction of the body, some mortifying disability, some weakness that makes one wretched, and unfits one for a full day's work.

However, "the Cross of the Christian differs from any burden or thorn. The cross he could escape, and he would if he were not a follower of the meek and lowly Saviour . . . Your cross is something you can take or refuse. It may be some care of another, whom you could refuse to help; some sad lot of life that you could escape; some poverty that you could leave behind if you compromised with the devil; some concern for others that would keep you back from fame and fortune. All this you could refuse to touch, or even face; at least you could if you were not a Christian. No one but you and God may know about this cross, and how hard you find to take it up each morning when you awake from sleep. All of this and more enters into crossbearing.

Personal commitment to Christ means the willingness to answer his call to training and leadership.

Mark's gospel tells us of Jesus' call to his disciples, four of whom are mentioned in our scripture for this lesson. Simon and his brother, Andrew, James and his brother, John, were all busy at their daily tasks when Jesus called them to become "fishers of men." It is significant that these men were active, successful workers and it is significant that today, the call to leadership in the churches of the world usually comes to the busiest, most active people. The call of Christ to service does not always mean the abandonment of one's chosen profession but it does mean the willingness to put him first in that vocation.

CANADIAN DAIRY FARMERS PLAN NATIONAL ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN

Dairy Farmers of Canada national advertising campaign will get underway in December, stated President Gilbert McMillan following meetings of the dairy farmers directors in Toronto recently.

With 400,000 dairy farmers putting up $300,000 plans call for advertising of dairy foods and regular information services to Canadian housewives regarding the use of dairy foods.

Mr. McMillan pointed out that dairymen realized Canadian housewives had a tough job in preparing three interesting meals each day in line with the family budget. For that reason dairymen were interested in getting across the fact that dairy foods were not only good foods, but economical to buy. Through a new dairy information service to be announced in the near future housewives would be made aware of not only the value but new ways of handling dairy foods.
